

KENYA LITERARY RETREAT

September 14-25*, 2026

Applications are available on our website caaln.org and due February 15 by 11:59 p.m. CST.

Come with us to write in beautiful Kenya! Our Kenya literary retreat includes workshops with writers from East Africa and the United States, one-of-a-kind cultural experiences including the Macondo Literary Festival in Nairobi and a spoken word workshop with local youth, as well as time to explore Nairobi's energy and creativity. Participants will have ample time for uninterrupted writing and inspiration. We will spend several days at Kitengela Glass near Nairobi National Park, and in Watamu on the Indian Ocean.

Fee $3,500 includes airport pickup, most meals, all lodgings, programming, and in-country transport.

Optional add-ons: 2 1/2 day safari in Tsavo; manuscript consultation; glass blowing workshops

*Optional add-on safari is Sept, 25-27, so your flight departing Kenya would be late Sept 27
